Class Content in 2024

Term One and Two: *Working with Stories

Alongside lots of games and skill-building, students will learn to use define the hallmarks of a story, build narrative and characters, and play through improvised scenes. Students will develop characters, scenes and puppets that sit within a well-known narrative frame, and create a short film towards the end of the semester.

Term Three and Four: *Creating a Show
